NATIONAL NEWS

National Labour Market overview from ONS for October 2021

The most recent data show the labour market continuing to recover.

- The number of job vacancies in July to September 2021 was a record high of 1,102,000, an increase of 318,000 from its pre-pandemic (January to March 2020) level; this was the second consecutive month that the three-month average has risen over one million. All industry sectors were above or equal to their January to March 2020 pre-pandemic levels in July to September 2021, with Accommodation and food service activities increasing the most, by nearly 50,000 (59%).
- Unemployment is 1,510,000 down by 40,000 on last month's figures
- The ONS claimant figure for unemployed is 2,112,800 – down by 51,100 on last month.
- Youth unemployment (including students) is 498,000 and has fallen by 40,000 on the quarter.
- The number of vacancies Jul – Sep 2021 rose to 1,102,000 from the previous quarter (340,000).
- There are now 1.5 unemployed people per vacancy
- The employment rate is 75.3% (up by 0.1 percentage points on last month).

Pret a Manger expansion plans

Restaurant chain Pret a Manger have announced they are to open 200 new restaurants across the UK over the next two years.

Aldi creating jobs with new stores

Aldi have revealed plans to create over 2,000 new jobs and open 100 new shops over the next two years.

More apprenticeships to be made available

HM Treasury have announced more apprenticeships are to be available. Large businesses will be able to easily pledge funds to smaller businesses through a new government service, to help create and recruit for more apprenticeship opportunities.

The online service launched in September to make it easier for large employers that pay the Apprenticeship Levy to spend their levy funds.

Large employers can already transfer up to 25% of their annual levy pot to support other employers to take on apprentices. Many employers have already taken advantage of this opportunity including Amazon, Co-op and Lloyds Banking to support other businesses with a funding boost.

The impact of AI on UK employment and the demand for skills

According to this report AI and related technologies should not cause mass technological unemployment, but the analysis suggests that they may well lead to significant changes in the structure of employment across occupations, sectors and regions of the UK. The effects may be relatively small over the next five years but could become more material over the next 10 - 20 years. Analysis also suggests that these technological changes may also add to income inequalities which may tend to favour people with higher education and skills levels, who also tend to have higher earnings levels.

Plan for Jobs

The government have pledged £500 million to expand the Plan for Jobs, announced last month, which is designed to support young people aged 16 - 24 on universal credit to benefit from the Kickstart Scheme (extended to March 2022) and help for those on the lowest wages.

Huge UK shortage of Registered Nurses

The Guardian reports on the number of nursing vacancies unfilled within the UK, revealing that there are around 39,000 vacancies for registered nurses. The government has set a target to increase the number of NHS nurses by 50,000 by 2025.

Amazing Apprenticeships – Parents’ Packs

The October parents’ packs are available on the Amazing Apprenticeships website.

Highest number of vacancies since 2001

The BBC report on a new record high in the number of job vacancies as figures show 1.1 million vacancies between July and September according to ONS. The largest increase was for the retail and motor vehicle sector.

Domino's recruitment drive

Domino's Pizza chain have announced they intend to hire over 8,000 drivers in the UK and Ireland for seasonal work in the lead up to Christmas. Domino's have stressed that most jobs are permanent.

Travelodge recruitment drive

Travelodge's autumn recruitment drive aims to fill 750 vacancies across the UK. Positions include posts for receptionists, bar staff and managers and the company are offering both full and part-time positions with flexible working hours.

Care sector needs more people

Analysis from Skills for Care finds that the care sector has more jobs unfilled than before the pandemic, with over 100,000 posts to fill across the UK. Job retention is also proving to be a problem. The government are providing extra funding and planning a regular recruitment drive to counteract the issue.

Encouraging young people to embark on an Engineering career

Tomorrow's Engineer week which runs from 8 -12 November, aims to challenge outdated perceptions of engineering by highlighting to young people that engineering is a creative, problem-solving, exciting career that improves the world around us. This year, it places an emphasis on demonstrating how engineering careers can contribute to tackling climate change and achieving net-zero carbon emissions.
